TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 23, 1875.

THERE has already been over $250,000 invested in pools on the great $30,000 horse race at San Francisco. Talk about hard times.

ONE of the saddest effects of the fire and storm in Virginia is the postponement of a target excursion. We learn this from the Gold Hill News.

THE net Republican majority in ten of the States which have held elections this Fall is stated at 63,000, a change from last Fall in favor of the Republicans of 113,000.

TALK of a short session of the Legislature! Nonsense! San Francisco has already sufficient schemes of legislation matured to occupy the attention of the Legislature for a hundred days.

WAR.—There is a prospect of war with Mexico. The U. S. troops repulsed a band of Mexican marauders who had crossed the Rio Grand river to steal stock, so now there is prospects of a war with Mexico.

FOUR hundred millions of dollars in subsidies for railroads and canals projected, and extension and enlargement of others, will be asked of the next Congress. Not a dollar should be voted to any private corporation.

DAN DE QUILLE proposes the building of a big corral for the houseless and leg weary Virginians, or, what is more practicable, throwing open and warming up the remaining church buildings as places of refuge. Good idea.

UNCLE SAM is anxious to buy Sonora from Mexico. The mines of Sonora are of fabulous wealth and if it is annexed to the United States emigration will be brisk. Negotiations are now pending to this end. Mexico asks $40,000,000 for the province.

AN attempt was made to take the life of Phillip Klingensmith at Mineral Park last week. He is one of the Mormons who confessed the secrets of the Mountain Meadow massacre, and it is supposed that the attempt upon his life was made by Brigham's Destroying Angels.

AN ingenious contrivance to evade the liquor law in Maine has been discovered in Bangor. It consists of a barrel within a barrel, furnished with a faucet, which, when turned one way supplies sweet cider, and when turned in another supplies lager beer.

If the new Alabama constitution should be adopted there will be a saving in salaries to the State alone of about $150,000 per annum. Some of the other States of this great nation might very profitably follow this example.

THE Rev. Talmage reckons that there are one hundred and fifty trillions of children in heaven. He will probably never see how near he has come to the real figure, any more than he will see that he has made a brilliant argument in favor of baby-farming and cholera infantum.

THE manufacture of peanut oil is becoming an important industry at the South. It was first made as a substitute for olive oil during the war, when the latter could not be had. It is much cheaper than olive or almond oil, and keeps both color and sweetness better than the former.

THE Federal Grand Jury their reports say that from Brownsville to Pecosy, a distance of six hundred miles in length and one hundred and fifty miles to Nueces, American ranchers have been ordered to leave their homes by Mexican raiders, on pain of death, and that a hundred thousand head of stolen cattle are driven to Mexico annually by Mexican marauders. Numbers of Federal officers have been assassinated, postoffices burned, custom houses robbed, mail carriers and inspectors of customs killed while in the discharge of their duties. The perpetrators ought to be severely punished.

VICE PRESIDENT WILSON.

Yesterday the flags of Reno were at half mast as a token of respect to the memory of Henry Wilson, Vice President of the United States, who had passed away from earth. Some time since he was seized with a paralytic fit which prostrated him. He recuperated and strong hopes were entertained of his recovery, but all at once he began to fail away and at last died. Mr. Wilson was elected on the Republican ticket with U. S. Grant when he was elected the second time, and Mr. Wilson has filled that position with honor and credit to the nation, and to day the nation mourns over the loss of this great, good man.

NO CAUSE FOR FEAR.

We published an editorial last week in which we said that San Francisco was alarmed over the prospect of having many Chinese voters; that hundreds of young Mongolians seventeen or eighteen years of age were being imported and that when they became of age they could become naturalized. This is not the case. The law reads that only native born can become citizens, or when the boy's father was a citizen before him. So there need be no fear from these youthful moon-eyes.

The Railroad Question.

The Reno JOURNAL rejoices that the county of Washoe has fought and won the victory against the Central Pacific Railroad Company, raising the tax of that Company from $6,000 to $9,000 per mile in Washoe county. There is not much in all this, except that the county officers of Washoe county have a little more money to handle. There is no principle established by it. Nine thousand dollars per mile is just as fictitious and arbitrary a valuation for Central Pacific property as $6,000. It is either worth nothing at all or a great deal more than either or both the sums named.

And there is every reason to believe that it does not make a penny's difference to that corporation whether their taxes are levied at one rate or the other. If there is any difference it is in favor of the Company, for they have the matter in their own hands entirely. They know in a moment how much more money they will have to pay if their tax is increased; they know just about how much freight is delivered at a certain point every month, how much an increased tariff of a shilling per ton on freight will amount to in a year; and with this knowledge, and with a clear field to raise or lower freights at pleasure, it would be very strange if they did not get even and a little more. So, while the Directors of the road read in the JOURNAL the glorifications of the editor over the fact that they have been compelled to pay certain sum, with a smile they turn to their books and figure up that in increased freights Washoe, Ormsby and Storey counties, and the country south, have paid them back their extra tax, their attorney's fees, the costs of Court, and left a handsome margin with which to fight men who have cattle killed or barns burned by locomotives in Washoe county. Fix it as we may, it is, after all, the men who pay freights and fares who pay the railroad taxes. Notwithstanding all the legislation to regulate and control railroads, there has been but a trifling advance made, and the whole thing is still left to the judgment and mercy of the railroad men. Legislatures have been unjust to railroad men. They have sought to enact arbitrary laws, seeming to make no note either of grades, curves, the cost of running trains, or the amount of business which any section of a road could command, and the railroad men have fought back with such an array of figures, isolated facts, probabilities and possibilities, that legislators have, one by one, retired baffled and discomfited. By and by there may some one appear clear-headed enough to state these things right, and to point out a remedy for evils, just alike to the public and to the railroad companies, but such a person has not yet been found. There will be competing roads by and by, which will help the public, and there are other plans which the future will disclose, by which a certain fair interest will be given railroads on their investments, and the balance will be held as belonging to the counties through which the railroads run. In the meantime, petty squabbles with railroad companies amount to simply what this triumph in Washoe county amounts to—increased revenue to the railway companies.—Saturday's Enterprise.

A MUTUAL MISUNDERSTANDING.—Two colored citizens had a little trouble at the Post-Office.

"Sir, I stigmatize you as a false hoodier!" exclaimed the first.

"And you, sir, are a cantering hip-scriber!" replied the second.

"Ah! talk away!" growled the first, "but my character is above disprach."

"And your influence don't detich from my reputation one iota!" growled the other.

And thus they parted.

THERE is a very general inquiry among persons of a curious turn of mind as to what has become of these twenty-cent pieces which were to have been coined in such profusion. We have seen a few of them exhibited as curiosities in the windows of the money changers; but they are not obtrusively conspicuous as a circulating medium. The public are asking, "Why is this thus?"—S. F. Chronicle.

They are piled up in Carson. The people do not like them and will not use them, hence their scarcity. The quarters seem to suit the demands better than the new coin.

In the Colorado Legislature there is a council of thirteen members, the House being entitled to double that number. At the recent election held in that Territory for members of both branches, the Republicans secured twenty and the Democrats nineteen. Pretty close work that.

THOUSANDS of Chinese are emigrating to Australia. They are not allowed to pursue the system of prostitution prevalent in America, and consequently are not such social pariahs as with us, being permitted to intermingle and even intermarry with respectable whites.

THERE are six European kingdoms, ruled by crown monarchs, which have each a smaller population than the State of New York, the last census of which shows it to be on the verge of 5,000,000. These kingdoms are Holland, Portugal, Belgium, Denmark, Bavaria and Greece.

NEWTON Booth has spoken! He says the finances will not be made a party question in 1876. This appears to be a good year for prophets; first Mrs. Bowers, then Sutro, now Booth. Next.
